“ An enthusiastic and hard working social media coordinator with a flair for design, who enjoys collaborating on projects. Brings forward the set of creative skills gained through years of working with online and commercial teams. Building social media numbers across all platforms by creating fun and interactive content for the follower. Working online on a daily basis to search out the best possible news stories for our readers and promoting across social platforms to gain the highest traffic. All while keeping a close eye on Google Analytics and interaction from followers. Always confident in putting my best food forward in every project that I take on.”
